 "Live Free or Die"
From a statement made by Gen. John Stark in a letter of July 31, 1809, became NH's official motto by act of the General Court in 1945 (Laws of New Hampshire, 1945 , Chapter 152, p.199). We do not know where the letter is, but we have the information from a letter of 1810 asking General Stark again to attend a reunion dinner with veterans of the Battle of Bennington. The letter is at the NH Historical Society as of Feb. 12, 2007, per information of NHHS Librarian William Copeley.
